CRISP AND REFRESHING

$13

2008 Erath Pinot Gris

Talk about fruity. From a veteran Oregon winemaker, this lively pick is redolent of pear, ripe banana, and peach blossom.

$13

2009 Charles Smith Kung Fu Girl Riesling

Fresh and light, with a kick (sorry) of apricot and lychee.

Gruet Brut Champenoise NV

Get the party started with this dry New Mexican sparkler. Among the highlights: fine bubbles and the slight pucker of green apple.

LUSH AND ROUND

$14

2009 Pine Ridge Chenin Blanc Viognier

What do you get when you mix two winning grapes? All sorts of delicious flavors, like honeydew, peach, and jasmine. Bliss.

$14

2008 Hayman & Hill Russian River Valley Reserve Selection Chardonnay

Big and rich, with a bright finish, this pick is extra turkey-friendly, thanks to tasty notes of tropical fruit, butterscotch, and oak.

$15

2009 Bonny Doon Vineyard Ca' del Solo Muscat

Not to be confused with the sticky dessert wines also made from Muscat, this not-too-sweet white seduces with aromas of honeysuckle and basil.
