Though the original “chef moved onward”, this “hip as it gets” Santa Cruz Californian is “still a very enjoyable” spot for sharing “OMG wonderful, inventive” farm-to-table prix fixes nightly (plus à la carte offerings and weekend lunch) with “great pairings” of “Bonny Doon wines” – the place (“a creatively designed warehouse”) is part of the vineyard’s tasting room; tabs get “a bit pricey”, but there are also cheaper “small bites”, craft beers and non-proprietary wines in the new lounge.”
